POLICY ON DETERMINING MATERIALITY OF AND DEALING WITH RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

I. PREAMBLE

The Board of Directors (the “Board”) of the Company recognizes the importance of stakeholders’ interest and their trust in the Company. To uphold this confidence and ensure a transparent mechanism that avoids potential or actual conflict of interest in transactions with related parties, the Board has adopted a policy for determining materiality and dealing with related party transactions (the “Policy”). The Board will review and may amend this policy from time to time.

This Policy is framed keeping in force the best interests of its stakeholders and the Corporate Governance requirements under the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 (Listing Regulations) and also the Companies Act, 2013 (the Act), as amended from time to time.

II. OBJECTIVE

The objective of the policy is to:

- a. Regulate transactions between the Company vis-à-vis its related parties with a view to ensuring that such transactions are executed on an arm’s length basis, in the regular course of business and transparently and fairly.
- b. Seek necessary approvals of the Audit Committee/Board/Shareholders, as may be necessary, after providing necessary information to them in the prescribed manner.
- c. Outline the procedures for identification, review, disclosure and reporting of such transactions.

III. DEFINITIONS

IV. INTERPRETATION

Terms that have not been defined in this Policy shall have the same meaning assigned to them in the Companies Act, 2013, Listing Regulations and/or any other SEBI Regulation(s) as amended from time to time.

V. MATERIALITY THRESHOLDS

A transaction with a related party shall be considered material if the transaction(s) to be entered into individually or taken together with previous transactions during a financial year, exceeds Rs. 1000 crore or ten percent (10%) of the annual consolidated turnover of the Company as per its last audited financial statements, whichever is lower.

However, in respect to, a transaction involving payments made to a related party with respect to brand usage or royalty shall be considered material if the transaction(s) to be entered into individually or taken together with previous transactions during a financial year, exceed five (5%) of the annual consolidated turnover of the Company as per its last audited financial statements.

VI. MANNER OF DEALING WITH MATERIAL RELATED PARTY TRANSACTION

All Material Related Party Transactions and subsequent material modifications shall be placed for prior approval of shareholders through a Resolution. However, the Material Related Party Transactions entered into between the Company and its wholly-owned subsidiaries shall not require prior approval of the shareholders.

VII. IDENTIFICATION OF RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Every director shall at the beginning of the financial year provide information by way of written notice to the company regarding his concern or interest in the entity with specific concern to parties which may be considered as related party with respect to the Company and shall also provide the list of relatives which are regarded as related party as per this policy. Directors are also required to provide the information regarding their engagement with other entity during the financial year which may be regarded as related party according to this policy.

The Company will identify potential transactions with Related Parties based on written notices of concern or interests received from its Directors / Key Managerial Personnel in the manner prescribed in the Act, and the rules thereunder.

Any employee of the Company who is aware of any transaction that is or may be perceived to be a Related Party Transaction is required to bring the same to the attention of the Company Secretary (or such other person who may be entrusted for this purpose by the Audit Committee) who would in turn take necessary steps to place the same before the Audit Committee.

All Directors, and Key Managerial Personnel (KMPs) are responsible for informing the Company of their interest (including interest of their Relatives) in other companies, firms or concerns at the beginning of every financial year and any change in such interest during the year, immediately on occurrence. Further, Directors and KMPs should disclose to the Board whether they, directly, indirectly, or on behalf of third parties, have a material interest in any transaction or matter directly affecting the Company.

In addition, all Directors, Members of the Management Committee and KMPs are responsible for giving notice to the Company Secretary of any potential Related Party Transaction involving them or their Relatives.

Such notice of any potential Related Party Transaction should be given well in advance so that the Company Secretary (or such other person who may be entrusted for this purpose by the Audit Committee) has adequate time to obtain and review information about the proposed transaction and place the same before the Audit Committee.

VIII. MANNER OF DEALING WITH AND APPROVAL OF RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

A. Approval of related party transactions by Audit Committee

All related party transactions should be referred to the Audit Committee of the Company for approval irrespective of its materiality, except for transactions entered into between the holding company and its wholly-owned subsidiaries. The Audit Committee shall also approve any subsequent material modification(s) to related party transactions. Only Members of the Audit Committee, who are independent directors, shall approve related party transactions.

Prior approval of the Audit committee shall be required for

- a. All RPTs and subsequent Material Modifications;
- b. RPTs where Company's subsidiary is a party but Company is not a party, if the value of such transaction, whether entered into individually or taken together with previous transactions during a financial year exceeds 10% of the annual consolidated turnover, as per the last audited financial statements of the Company;
- c. with effect from April 1, 2023, a related party transaction to which the Company's subsidiary is a party but the Company is not a party, if the value of such transaction whether entered into individually or taken together with previous transactions during a financial year, exceeds ten per cent of the annual standalone turnover, as per the last audited financial statements of such subsidiary.
- d. Provided that prior approval of the audit committee of the Company shall not be required for RPTs where a listed subsidiary of the Company is a party but the Company is not a party, if regulation 23 and 15 (2) of SEBI LODR are applicable to such listed subsidiary

For related party transactions of unlisted subsidiaries of a listed subsidiary as referred to in (d) above, the prior approval of the audit committee of the listed subsidiary shall suffice.

The Audit Committee shall consider the following while determining approval to related party transactions-

- (a) Nature of relationship with the related party;
- (b) Nature, duration, material terms, monetary values, and particulars of the contract or arrangement;
- (c) Any advance paid or received for the contract or arrangement, if any;
